Decision Required – Supporting Information

Financial Implications: (Must include comments of the PCC's CFO where the decision has financial implications)

The funding for these grants is built into the funding streams for 2015/16 and are therefore affordable.

Legal Implications: (Must include comments of the Monitoring Officer where the decision has legal implication)

Under S13(1) of the Childrens Act (2004) local authorities have a requirement to establish safeguarding boards. Partners such as the PCC have a duty to co-operate and support local authorities in this regard.

Grant agreements will be awarded in accordance with the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

Equality and Diversity Implications

The grant will support work with children from all areas of the Cleveland community.

Human Rights Implications

There are no known Human Rights implications.

Sustainability Implications

The work of the boards is to enhance the social environment of Cleveland. The funding can be sustained for 2015/16.

Risk Management Implications

There are not any significant risks associated with supporting the Safeguarding Boards.
