

THE POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER FOR CLEVELAND*DECISION RECORD FORM

REQUEST: For PCC approval following agreement at the funding approvals meeting held on 7 June 2016

Title:

Summerhill Country Park

Executive Summary:

The object of the Friends of Hartlepool's Wild Green Spaces (FWGS) is to protect, conserve and enhance Hartlepool's Parks, Local Nature Reserves and other Green Spaces.

FWGS would like to improve the CCTV capability at Summerhill Country Park. The current facility does not have a high enough resolution or coverage to identify perpetrators. Summerhill has suffered a number of acts of violence, vandalism and arson over the last few years. In particular the roundhouse located in front of the visitor centre: this has been destroyed and rebuilt by volunteers and staff a number of times. The roundhouse is used for Heritage Skills and Forest Schools activities with the local children.

The FWGS have also received £2,000 funding from Hartlepool Borough Council.

This decision to fund FWHS supports the PCC's priorities of working together to make Cleveland safer and securing the future of our communities.

Decision:

To approve an award of £5,000 from the PCC Community Safety Initiatives fund to contribute to the purchase of CCTV at Summerhill Country Park in Hartlepool.
