

THE POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER FOR CLEVELAND

DECISION RECORD FORM

REQUEST: For PCC approval.

Title: Request for funds from to support Road Safety Initiatives

Executive Summary: To promote and enforce road safety across the force road network in line with NPCC and TISPOL campaigns. This will deliver the national and local message in driving forward the PCC Road Safety for our community's pledge and the delivery of his Working Together to Make Cleveland Safer objective. The funding will target the fatal four contributing factors to road death and serious injury and therefore make our communities a safer place whilst delivering message to reduce death, serious and minor injuries in Cleveland and commuting Drivers Nationally.

The enforcement will also produce a proportion of cost recovery through the education diversion schemes to further support Road Safety Initiatives.

To have ring fenced traffic officer deployed in marked and unmarked patrol car to carry out intelligence led and patrol enforcement across all of the operations. The campaigns will be coordinated to identify locate and deal with offenders on the road network across Cleveland as well as having multi agency days of action. The funding will ensure the operations go ahead supported by partner agencies at various times and locations.

Funding will support additional policing services the delivery of the following campaigns

- Speed Campaign (x2) at £2,000 (8 officer days) each
- CDG Campaign (x5) at £1,500 (6 officer days) each
- Operation Tramline (x4) at £1,000 (4 officer days) each
