Dear Barry,

I wanted to write to thank you for your support and input to the Serious Violence event on 9 May.

Feedback from the event has been very positive.

I am very grateful to you for giving up your time to speak at the event to share a summary of the day's discussions and your personal reflections on the issues raised. I would also like to thank you for your participation in our Q&A panel. I know that it resonated with the delegates and helped prompt further thinking and engagement.

I would also like to pass on my thanks to your team for working closely with my colleagues here on the logistics in the run up to the event. In particular, I would be grateful if you could pass on my thanks to Simon Smart.

The feedback and discussion from these events is directly informing our programme of national work and support and I hope it is helping to achieve our aims of galvanising the local partnership response to tackling serious violence locally. Again, thank you very much for your engagement and enthusiasm on the day.

I look forward to continuing to work in partnership with you in tackling serious violence on our streets and in our communities.

Yours sincerely

Nick Hunt
Head of Serious Violence Unit
