

Police & Crime Commissioner for Cleveland

February 2014 Newsletter

Welcome to the February edition of my monthly newsletter. It's been a busy start to 2014. Highlights this month have including going out on a rural crime operation in East Cleveland to hear the crime concerns of farmers and the rural community, and going out on the beat with operational officers in Stockton (see photo) to see how the Force restructure is benefitting the way they work.

I also had the pleasure of hosting a very useful and informative event organised by the Safer Future Communities network looking at how to prevent offenders from reoffending and help them to integrate into communities. It was inspiring to hear from so many Voluntary and Community Organisations regarding the work they do in helping people to put their lives back on track.
