CLEVELAND POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER

My 10-Point Plan for policing and community safety

As your Police and Crime Commissioner, I'm required to develop a plan to make Cleveland a safer place for those who live, work and visit here. My 10-point plan - which has been created in collaboration with crime and community safety experts - sets out my vision for the next three years.

Bringing offenders to justice

Increasing opportunities for offenders to be held accountable for their behaviour with a focus on preventing reoffending.

Getting tough on drugs and gangs

Introducing a holistic approach to drugs and gangs including prevention, early and targeted intervention.

Tackling antisocial behaviour head-on

Taking a strong stance on antisocial behaviour through partnership working and youth engagement.

Effective criminal justice system

Collaborating with and holding to account Cleveland Police and wider Criminal Justice agencies to increase public confidence.

Prevent, reduce and tackle serious violence

Development of a Serious Violence Strategy in collaboration with Cleveland Police and Community Safety Partnerships.

More police on our streets

Investing in the frontline community response.

Tackling violence against women and girls

Working in partnership with local services to ensure women feel safe and supported.

Building confidence in our communities

Ensuring Cleveland Police deliver a high quality service, building pride and support for police across our local area.

Effective quality support for victims and witnesses

Providing help for victims and witnesses through the commissioning of specialist support services.

Use technology to combat crime

Maximise the use of technology, creating opportunities for efficiencies and additional support for the workforce.

The Plan will help deliver against my four strategic goals for Cleveland:

To build public confidence and put the pride back into Cleveland Police.

To work collectively with partners to reduce crime, specifically serious violence.

To make greater use of technology that creates efficiencies and supports productivity.

To provide high quality services to victims and the most vulnerable that effectively meets their needs.
