

27th October 2016

I write following your FOI request in which you request:

Could you please disclose a list of all the services and facilities shared by the PCC and Cleveland Police (I.E. press office, office space)

Could you please disclose for these services, how much each respective office pays towards that cost.

This request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Regarding your request I can now inform you that I have completed my enquiries and that my reply on behalf of the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Cleveland is as follows.

I can confirm that the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Cleveland does hold some of this information.

The Police and Crime Commissioner owns the whole Force estate however he does not manage it, this is left to the Chief Constable and therefore the question regarding shared space should be directed to the Force. They can be found at <https://www.cleveland.police.uk/advice-information/foi.aspx>

However in an attempt to assist you I can offer the following.

The Commissioner publishes a property list on his website as part of the national transparency mandate (<http://www.cleveland.pcc.police.uk/Document-Library/Finance/Cleveland-Police-Property-Listings.pdf>) and this is updated as changes are made.

Similarly the Commissioner publishes a list of all services, finance, decisions and compliance with the Specified Information Order under the Transparency navigation bar found at <http://www.cleveland.pcc.police.uk/Home.aspx>

I can confirm that the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Cleveland has a FOI complaints procedure.

If you are unhappy with the way your request for information has been handled, you can request a review by writing to:

Mr Stephen Hodgson
Solicitor
Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Cleveland
Police Headquarters
Ladgate Lane
Middlesbrough
