| Question to the Force (Question(s) to be provided by OPCC) |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What measures are the Force taking to combat ASB? 2. Is the force confident it knows how to effectively respond to cases of ASB? 3. What early intervention/preventative work is being done/considered across the force, for example where is the next Hemlington? 4. What work is taking place with partners to address ASB? 5. How does the force manage and/or support repeat victims and offenders of ASB? |
| Rationale for Question (Reason why the question has been asked, what is the PCC seeking assurance on etc) |
| Key priority in Police and Crime Panel – ‘Tackling antisocial behaviour head on’ Prominent coverage in local news regarding ongoing ASB incidents in communities, including the Hemlington area. When engaging with the public at PCC/OPCC Roadshows, the topic of ASB is always raised as a priority / key concern in communities. |
| OPCC Background Information (OPCC will provide information they have, for example from public feedback, stakeholder engagement, OPCC work streams, scrutiny panel and joint audit committee information, any Force responses from previous scrutiny meetings, national findings/reports, HMICFRS, performance data etc). |
| Following consultation on the Police and Crime Plan, 77.84% of respondents rated ASB as a very important priority and 18.02% of respondents rated ASB as important. |
