

How to report

REPORT ONLINE

There is no immediate danger to staff or members of the public.

An offence has already taken place.

The offender has left the scene.

No serious injuries.

CALL 999

You or someone else is in immediate danger.

Police help is needed immediately.

A crime is ongoing like an act of violence.

The offender is at the scene.

CALL 101

Report an offence that has already happened.

You do not require a police response.

You need to seek advice.

To provide CCTV/photographic or audio evidence.

Use the COPA App to feed in policing and community safety feedback.

Someone using violence or threatening violence.

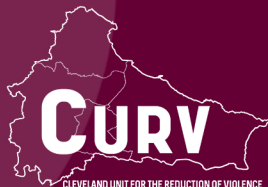

If there is a danger to life.

An offender has been detained.

Security or staff have deterred a person.

Providing information on a crime that has already occurred.

Reporting concerns about criminal activity.

Scan me
To access our reporting services