recognise • report • recover

HATE ENDS HERE

Scan to report

Recognise – A crime committed because of someone's race, religion, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity is a hate crime.

Report – If you experience or witness hate crime, tell someone.

You can report to:
Cleveland Police
Crimestoppers (anonymously)
A Third Party Reporting Centre

Recover – Hate crime can have a lasting impact but you are not alone.

Specialist support is available from the Victim Care and Advice Service (VCAS). Call: 0303 040 1099. Email: info@vcas.uk.