HATE ENDS HERE

Recognise - A crime committed because of someone's race, religion, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity is a hate crime.

Hate crime affects individuals, families and whole communities.

Report - You don't need to be the victim to report hate crime. If you see it or hear it, tell someone.

You can report to:
Cleveland Police
Crimestoppers (anonymously)
A Third Party Reporting Centre

Support Recovery - If someone has experienced hate crime, let them know help is available through the Victim Care and Advice Service (VCAS).
Call: 0303 040 1099. Email: info@vcas.uk.
